Get back cat out of your flap

Well it's late at night and I'm resting fine

When I hear a scream and I hear a whine

He's bringing me a present it's a disembowelled mouse

Whose inside's strung out all over the house

Get back cat out of your flap

Well I've gone to bed and I close my eyes

I do I recognise those signs

He's bringing me a present it's a furry little mole

I don't think he'll be digging no hole

Well it's 3am and I'm deep in sleep

When I hear him crawl I can hear him creep

He's bringing me a present it's a tweeting little bird

The last of that bird you ever heard

Well it's morning light and I'm waking too

This cat has nothing better to do

He's bringing me a present a real big favour

Dragged through the flap it's my next-door neighbour
